In framing this Bill it has been considered arrived in Houghong this morning; later t desirable to bring late force an adaptation going on board the a.s. The Bill provides that any animal found at large may be seized by a police officer and impounded and detained until the owner thereof shall have paid to the Capt. Supt. of Police the reasonable expenses of impounding and keeping such animal, together with the pound tee, which for the present is fixed at $1. If these expenses are not paid within three days, notice of the intention to sell the animal shall be published as Shul On, a Chinese owned boat flying in the Gazette. If after seven days the Police may cause the animal to be sold cither by private treaty or public auction, > destroyed or otherwise disposed of. Bills were also read a first time amending the law relating to Stamp Duty and amending the Stamp Duties Management Ordinance, 1911. The former corrects certain errors, and the latter introsire that section 14 (1) should be slightly extended in its scope so as to more closely follow the model of the Imperial Act and that the meaning of the words "the chief office or one of the chief offices" in the secand provise to section 10 be made more

An important measure read a first time was a Bill entitled An Ordinance to further amend the University Ordinance, 1911. In a statement of the objects and reasons for the measure, the Attorney General The Secretary of State has expressed deare that the University Ordinances of 1911 should be amended in the light of certwo criticisms, which have been passed on them by the Board of Education and has meantime refrained from tendering any advice to His Majesty in respect of the said Ordinances. The Board of Education are desirous that the employment of the Uni versity of London Examiners in collabora. tion with the members of the teaching staff of the Hongkong University should not imply that the degrees of the Hongkong University will be given on the same examination papers as those which are set to the external students of the University of London, as, if this were done, the syllabuses of the London external examinations w aid konic University and all freedom and initiative on the part of the latter institution would be destroyed. They suggest therefore that the Hongkong cutricula should be worked out by the Hongkong University and that the London University should be asked to accept the curricula as broadly equivalent to that required for a London degree. The University London should then, they think, be requested to appoint one of their own examiners in each subject to act as the external examiners for the Hongkong examinations with the power of veto over the passing of any candidate who does not reach and with instructions to assure themselves that the standard of the examination both in the separate subjects and collectively is the same as that for a London degree in the All the passengers were held up and it is particular Faculty concerned. The external estimated that the robbers got away with but to the University of Hougkong and to the University of London, but the examination papers should all he read and marked in the first "instance by members of the Hungkong teaching staff, the papers thus marked being then sent with the report to the London Examiners. The Board. of Education also think that it is mportant that the Hongkong University hould have the power to set up a printing press and publish |books if it desires. They donsider that section 4 (7) of the Principal Ordinance gives the University the power of examining and inspecting schools independently of the Government and suggest that the sub-section should be modified with a view to safeguarding the position of the Education Department of the Colony in this respect though they see no reason why the Government should not employ inspecting and examining schools. "The Board consider that it is of great importance that the position of the Vice-Chancellor should be placed beyond all reasonable doubt and suggest the addition of a clause to the effect that the Vice-It is evident that piracy is very general Chancellor is the chief administrative assign to him.
